

- * API (Application Programming Interface): A set of rules for software to communicate.
- * SDK (Software Development Kit): Tools to build software for a specific platform.
- * Web APIs: APIs for communication between web applications.
- * Library APIs: APIs for accessing functions within a programming library.
- * Prompting and Completion: Input (prompt) given to a language model, and the model's generated output (completion).

